Refund Grade School Bonded Indebtedness

Refinance $12,000 to Reduce Payments; Will Be Retired in 1946

Refunding of the $12,000 balance of Antioch's grade school building bond indebtedness, whereby the annual payments will be reduced and the entire amount will be liquidated in 1946, was announced today by the grade school board of education.

The refunding was accomplished through M. B. Vick & Co., of Chicago, and the new schedule of payments calls for $2,000 on January 1, 1942, and payments of $2,500 on January 1 of each successive year for four years. The interest rate is 4 1/2%.

The original bonds, issued when the new building was constructed in 1928, were for $45,000, with payments of $3,000 annually on June 30 until 1940 when the principal payments were $4,000. These also carried an interest rate of 4 1/2%.

Due to decreased assessment rates and to the fact that maintenance expenses and insurance premiums require quite a large sum of money each year, the $4,000 principal payment that had to be made last year depleted the building fund to such an extent that the board thought it wise to refund the remaining indebtedness with smaller payments extending over a longer period of time.

President Robert Wilton and his board members and Principal R. E. Clabaugh are being commended by taxpayers for accomplishing the refunding deal without any additional expense whatever to the district.

Drama Awards Presented at Thespian Fete

Senior Class Receives Tournament Winners' Shield at Annual Dinner

One hundred guests and members were in attendance at the third annual Thespian banquet and dance sponsored by the Curtain Call club, Antioch Township high school dramatic association, Tuesday evening.

Colorful St. Patrick's Day decorations caught the immediate attention of the guests as they entered the banquet hall. One hundred miniature candles, one at each place, twinkled merrily during the first course.

Miss Doris Klass, president of the Curtain Call club, introduced Mrs. George E. Phillips, dramatics director, who in turn presented Miss Virjean Hook of Grayslake, vice-president; Miss Roberta Selter and Miss Gertrude Horton of Antioch, manager and secretary, respectively.

Mrs. Phillips made a short but effective speech of welcome before presenting the various awards.

Fred Hawkins, president of the senior class, accepted the drama shield, annually presented to the winners of the interclass play tournament, in behalf of his classmates.

Receive Letters, Cups

A copy of "The Romance of the American Theatre" by Marie C. Crawford and a school letter were awarded to Roberta Selter for four years of continued superior dramatic achievement.

Violet Loftus, Antioch, and Dale Smith, Grayslake, received the gold cups annually presented to the outstanding actress and actor among the many students of the theatre at Antioch high.

In conclusion Mrs. Phillips awarded twenty-four "A's" to students who have done superior dramatic work, either before the footlights or behind the scenes.

Members of the banquet committee were Sybil Johnson, Mary Kay Lynn, Ella Fay, Margaret Gaedel, Lucille Sherman, Mildred Dow, Roberta Selter, Violet Loftus, June Kutil, Catherine Quigley, Ida Maier, and Jeanne Mack.

Civic Club to Hold Election in April

A nominating committee consisting of Dr. G. W. Jensen, George White and George B. Bartlett was appointed by President Otto S. Klass at a meeting of the Antioch Men's Civic club in the Ball hotel Monday evening.

The committee will present a slate of officers for the annual election meeting Monday evening, April 21.

Three new members, Attorney MacFarland, V. J. Keeney, the new Soo Line depot agent, and Sheridan Burnett, were admitted into the club.

Every phase of taxation, from those affecting the man who pays a very small amount of personal property tax to those affecting corporations, was discussed by Lew Hendee, for many years clerk of Lake county, as speaker of the evening.

Places at the 7 o'clock dinner preceding the meeting were set for 34, including William Webel and William Marks, members from Lake Villa.

This was the first meeting of the Civic club which Eugene Hawkins, a charter member, had missed since it was organized.

Hawkins was confined to his bed by illness.

Making of Fine China Will Be Shown in Film

Pickard Company Sponsors Showing of Motion Picture Friday

The Making of Fine China will be shown in motion pictures Friday evening, March 21, in Antioch High School auditorium.

The movies will depict the processes of pottery making from the raw material to the most elaborately designed finished product.

H. A. Pickard, president of Pickard, Inc., will explain the various processes of manufacture.

The program will be open to all who wish to attend, and there will be no admission charge. The showing of the pictures is sponsored by Pickard's.

Of Special Interest

The program is of especial interest at this time in view of the fact that the Pickard company is moving its entire plant to Antioch.

The company originally confined its business to decorating fine china imported from Central European countries, but disrupted conditions there made it necessary to seek another source of supply.

A manufacturing plant was established at Antioch three years ago and its product, created under the supervision of master potters, has been developed to the point where it is pronounced equal to that formerly imported.

Between $30,000 and $40,000 was spent by the company in developing the formulae and processes for its exquisite china.

Besides moving its decorating plant here from Chicago this year, the company has also been enlarging its manufacturing capacity to meet constantly increasing orders from such firms as Marshall Field and Company and others holding exclusive contracts for distribution of Pickard wares in their territories.

School Officers of Lake County Townships to Meet in Wauconda

George B. Bartlett, school treasurer of Antioch township, and Otto S. Klass, Bert Edwards and D. H. Minto, trustees, are among those planning to attend the annual meeting of Lake county school treasurers and trustees Monday at 6:30 p. m. in Wauconda Township High school.

Bartlett was host to the meeting last year, at Antioch High school.

Talks will be given by Noble J. Puffer, Barrington, Cook county superintendent of schools, on "The Importance of the Township Treasurer"; and by Lewis V. Morgan, DuPage county superintendent of schools. An open discussion will be led by W. C. Petty, Lake county school superintendent.

A dinner will precede the program, followed by an address of welcome and introduction of members by Mrs. Anna Stadfield, Wauconda township treasurer. Lloyd Ritzenthaler, treasurer of Vernon township, will speak on "Are My Accounts Ready for the Auditor?" and Marguerite M. Zimmer, assistant superintendent of Lake county schools, will speak on "The Township Treasurer and Recognition of Schools."

Entertainment will be furnished by the music department of the host school, directed by Miss Mary Hornung. Dinner will be served by the home economics department.

School Elections Set for April 12

Three Board Members to Elect at Grade School; One at Antioch High

Unusual interest centers around the candidacy of five entrants for the three vacancies occurring this year on the Antioch Grade school board of education, while at the Antioch High School, Walter Hills apparently is the only entrant for the one vacancy to be filled at the forthcoming election on April 12. Both grade and high school elections will be held on that date.

This year's elections show a reversal of interest as has been manifested in former years when election of board members at the elementary school was merely a routine matter of form, while at the high school, the balloting frequently assumed proportions of a "battle royal." However, the News has it, via "grapevine" but nevertheless reliable sources of information, that with this year's election out of the way, those interested in the personnel of the high school board may look for the fireworks in 1942. Likely candidates for the big battle next year are now being groomed, but whether the interest manifested at this early date concerns matters of policy relating to the general welfare of the school, or is to be an effort directed toward regaining prestige lost in 1939 is not made clear by the self-appointed campaign managers.

Five Seek Grade School Posts

Five petitions have been circulated for candidates for position on the grade school board, according to Mrs. Otto Klass, board secretary. They are: Robert J. Wilton, for re-election as president; Arthur J. Laursen, Henry J. Renter, Elmer Hunter and Robert King, for board members. A president and two members are to be elected.

Expiring this year were the terms of Elmer Brinkman and Art Hawkins, both of whom declined to run for re-election. Other members of the board are Mrs. Joe Patrovsky, Mrs. Roy Kufalk, Roy Burdick, and Mrs. Klass, secretary.

Urban grammar school boards are comprised of six members and a president. Members serve for three years, two being elected each year, and a president is elected annually.

Only one vacancy occurs on the Antioch Township High school board of education, the term of Walter Hills expiring this year. He is a candidate for re-election without opposition. High school boards have five members. After election the members choose their own president and secretary. Members serve for three years, two being elected at two successive elections, and then one member at the next election.

Other High School board members are Arthur Maplethorpe, president; Paul Chase, James McMillen, and Mrs. Lester Osmond, secretary.

Consider Forming Lake County School Association

All boards of directors and members of boards of education in Lake county have been invited by W. C. Petty, Lake county superintendent of schools, to attend a legislative conference at the Grayslake grade school Friday at 8 p. m.

The organization of a Lake County School Board association will be considered at this meeting.

The principal or superintendent of each school district, as well as all teachers of one-teacher schools, will be present, in addition to board members.

Holy Name Team Wins Match at Mundelein

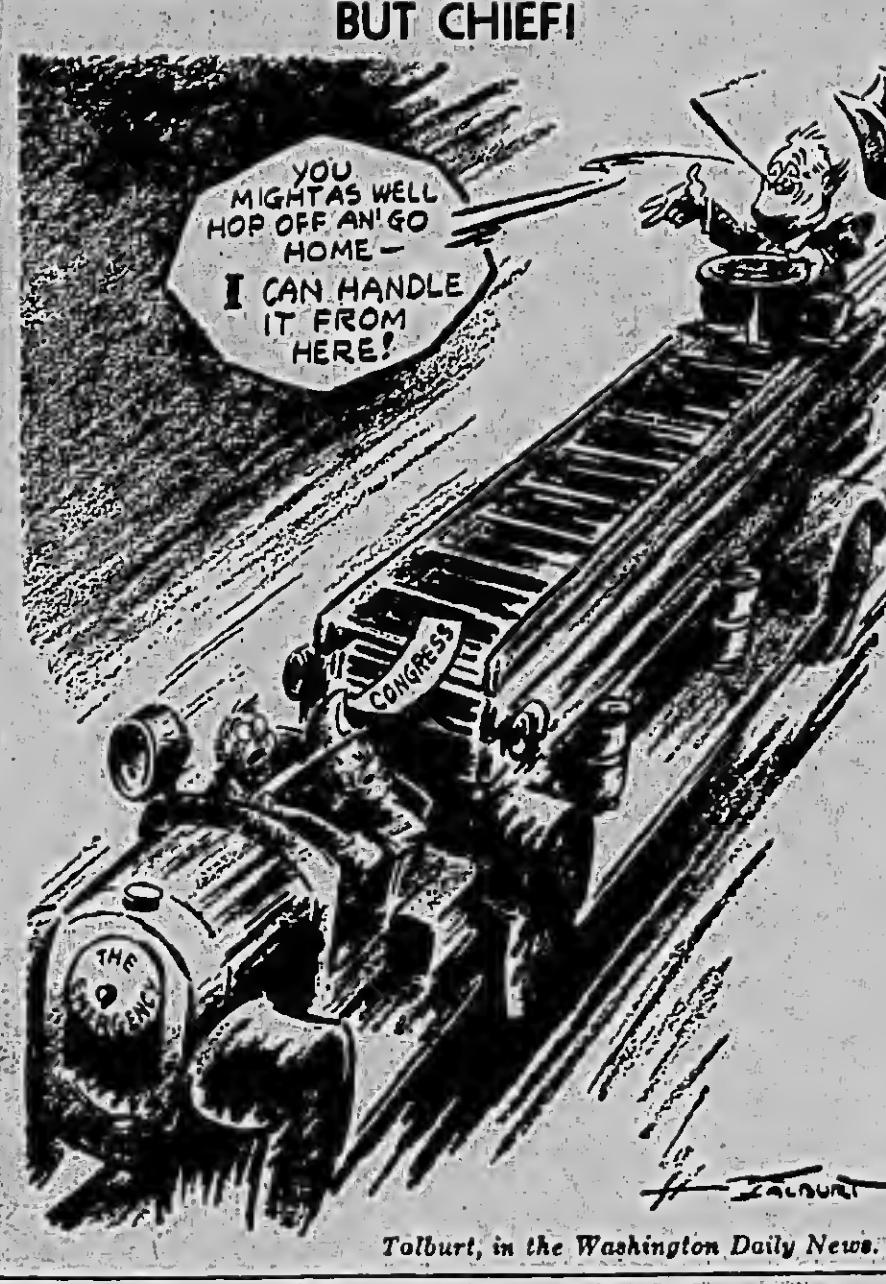

Members of the St. Peter's Holy Name bowling team scored a victory over the strong Mundelein team in a match there Sunday, by a margin of 20 pins.

In a previous match, held here, Antioch won one, and lost two, of the three games bowled.

Members of the team Sunday night included Tim O'Connell, Dudley Kennedy, Eugene Sheehan, Rudy Eckert and Louis Bauer. Bauer substituted for Miller, who regularly bowls with the team.

Elizabeth Webb Suffers Broken Arm in Fall

Miss Elizabeth Webb is expected to return home today from Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan, where she was taken for treatment of a broken arm suffered in a fall yesterday morning when she was on her way from her residence to Webb's Racket store. She sustained a break of the left arm at the wrist. She was removed to the hospital by Dr. A. P. Bratrude.

Four Take Examinations for Substitute P. O. Clerk

Four candidates took the civil service examinations for substitute postal clerk for the Antioch post office, Saturday morning at Antioch Grade school.

The candidates were Chester Kilpatrick, Henry Quedenfeld, Jr., T. J. Palaski and George Hawkins. The examinations were conducted by Oliver R. Hughes, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners.

Hughes succeeded Roy Kufalk, who automatically gave up the secretaryship when he became Antioch postmaster. Since the postmaster is an "appointing" officer, he cannot, under civil service rules, also hold an examining office. Kufalk had been secretary of the local board of examiners for 15 years, serving from Dec. 23, 1926, until recently.

The contract for the general construction work was awarded to Kaiser & Ducey, of 80 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, on its bid of $66,969 by a vote of 16 to 14. The heating, plumbing and electrical contracts were let by a vote of 22 to 2 to the Kilby company, of 2520 Green Bay rd., Evanston, for $9,900; Walter E. Huhn, of 1720 Grand Ave., Waukegan, for $7,700, and S. H. Bente, of 28 N. Genesee st., Waukegan, for $5,600 respectively.

Assistant Supervisor Charles B. Fitzgerald of Sheldens sponsored a motion that the contractors be notified by Chairman W. W. Steele and County Clerk Jay B. Morse that the supervisors insist that Lake county labor and materials must be used where available.

The letting of contracts was opposed by Supervisors Joseph P. Welch of Cuba and Harry W. Washo of Ela; the grounds that the county would not need the home, with the increasing activity of the Social Security administration.

Supervisor Harold E. Pillifant of Waukegan maintained, however, that a county home will always be needed, declaring that many of the aged persons need the care of the county and cannot be cared for in private homes.

Supervisor Charles B. Fitzgerald of Sheldens sponsored a motion that the contractors be notified by Chairman W. W. Steele and County Clerk Jay B. Morse that the supervisors insist that Lake county labor and materials must be used where available.

The local board trustees are Otto S. Klass, D. H. Minto and Bert Edwards.

George B. Bartlett is the town treasurer, to which post he has been regularly appointed by the trustees for the last 18 years.

Klass's term expires this year, and he is a candidate for re-election.

Gets New Law Enacted

The local board of trustees, together with Treasurer Bartlett, are credited with citing an inequity in school law regarding the payment of expenses incurred in administering the affairs of the treasurer and trustees, and recommending a change which was enacted into law by the General Assembly of Illinois in 1939.

Previous to that date it is believed that no other high school district in the state except Antioch High had paid its proportionate share of the cost of administering the school funds—the expense being borne entirely by the grade school districts. Antioch High school was the sole exception to this statewide practice.

Boring from Within

"Boring from within" is an old radical technique. The "borders" attempt to destroy a government, an industry or an institution on a piecemeal basis. They move slowly, and avoid the real issue. They use all possible camouflage. They join or desert other groups as opportunity dictates. They make every effort to keep the public confused and at sea. And finally, if the boring technique succeeds, the public wakes up one fine day, rubs its eyes in amazement, and discovers too late the havoc wrought by the destruction.

The present socialistic attack on the electric industry provides a case in point. It is never called socialism by its attackers—instead they use resounding, vague phrases in which the magic words "liberalism" and "democracy" frequently appear. They attempt to allay the public's fears by arguing that destruction and absorption by government of the private utilities only affects a few "big fellows" and doesn't have anything to do with the "little fellow."

That last argument is due for analysis. It may be true that comparatively few "little fellows" are directly affected when a private electric utility is forced out of business. But the "boring from within" technique does not stop there. When the government builds generating stations and transmission lines, the next step is government acquisition of local distributing lines. At this point the local electrician may find himself in competition with government in connecting houses and places of business to the power lines. After the wiring is in, the political urge is for the government to sell power appliances—thus competing with the private appliance dealer. Does that sound far-fetched? Well, wait until tax-exempt, tax-subsidized government hits your business and you will find it is a mild statement.

The point to be remembered is that no country can exist or prosper half socialized and half free. Political domination, control or ownership of big business is simply a prelude to the same treatment of little business. The politicians' lust for power knows no bounds—it grows as it feeds on the resources of a nation.

Every time we surrender a right to government, we move another step toward dictatorship. Give socialism an inch and it wants a mile. And the "little people," the ordinary men and women who are the backbone of any nation, are the greatest losers—they lose their dearest possession, individual freedom of action and opportunity—the right to make a profit from their private enterprise.

Inventive Security

Suddenly one day during the World War, the German troops on the Western Front were faced with an awe-inspiring sight. Big ungainly objects armored like oversized armadillos were trundling towards their trenches. The troops fired at the strange creatures, but without effect. They could do nothing save beat a hasty retreat.

Those strange armored beings were, of course, the first British tanks—the first tanks, indeed, used in modern warfare. They were a "surprise weapon," effecting a decisive change in the course and temper of military events. It is only by producing such surprises that the defenses of any nation in this troubled world can be securely maintained.

In this light, it is certainly cheering to know that the United States is making due allowance for this factor at a time when the other phases of national defense are coming in for detailed consideration. The government some time ago established a National Inventors Council, headed by Charles F. Kettering, world-famous inventor in his own right, the man who conceived the self-starter for the automobile, and today President of General Motors Research Corporation.

Mr. Kettering and his associates will examine thousands of ideas conceived by small inventors and large research laboratories which might be of value to the defense program. Undoubtedly, most of the ideas won't be particularly useful. But buried among them will be a few of the "surprise weapons" that can prove so decisively important.

We can be sure that many of these inventions will be valuable because the United States, more than any other country, has proved itself an "inventor's land." Here the men who create new ideas are protected by a patent system that is a model for the rest of the world. Here they have the industrial backing to develop the new thoughts they conceive. Men like Dr. Kettering are exemplars of that truth; others are continuing to prove it at the present time.

JESUS CONDEMNED AND CRUCIFIED

LESSON TEXT—Luke 23:13-25, 32-34a.
GOLDEN TEXT—What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?—Matthew 27:22.

Two nights stand out in the story of the life of Christ, and therefore in the history of the world. The first was His first night on earth—that "silent night, holy night" of which we sing at Christmas, when He was born as the babe of Bethlehem. The other was His last night on earth.

Except for the precious hour of fellowship in the upper room and His communion with the Father in the agony of Gethsemane, it was a night of darkness, denial, and betrayal.

There were six trials—or mock trials—of Jesus, three religious ones before Annas, then Caiaphas, and then again before the Sanhedrin; three political trials, before Pilate, then Herod, and Pilate again. At the close of this last trial before Pilate Jesus stands.

I. Cleared by the Evidence (vv. 13-17).

At the first trial before him Pilate had declared on the basis of his examination that Jesus was "Not guilty" (v. 4). Herod, to whom He had been sent, had only played with Him (vv. 8-11). What a travesty!

Now Pilate again presents Him to the people as having "no fault." It is a striking truth that no man of any age has ever been able honestly to point to any fault in the life or character of Jesus Christ. Think that over—unbeliever!

Now comes Pilate's first step in the wrong direction. An accused man without guilt should be declared innocent and released. But Pilate feared the Jews who had already made trouble for him with Caesar. So he compromised and said he would chastise Jesus before releasing Him. John Morely was right when he said, "Under some circumstances compromise is the most immoral word in the English language." It gained Pilate nothing; in fact, it led to his next step downward.

II. Condemned Through Cowardice (vv. 18-25).

To avoid a disturbance and to keep the leaders from complaining to Caesar, Pilate gave Jesus into their hands with the "sentence that it should be as they required" (v. 24) when they cried "Crucify Him!"

Pilate was in a difficult place, but that does not excuse him. It is in the hard and trying place that a man should stand for the right, come what may. Too many of those who profess to follow Christ are afraid to stand up for Him in the hour when men deny Him. Some unbelievers are fearful about declaring their allegiance to Him, because they fear the opposition of men.

Where is our courage, our manliness? Have we lost the moral stamina of our pioneer forefathers, the religious conviction of our Christian fathers and mothers? Pilate was a coward, and we are ashamed of him. Let us not be cowardly and make Christ ashamed of us (read Matt. 10:32, 33).

III. Crucified with Malefactors (vv. 32-34a).

The details of and circumstances surrounding the crucifixion are of deep interest to every Christian.

We stand with Luther and weep as we see Christ's unspeakable agony, not only of body but of spirit; and we cry as did Luther, "For me, for me!" How can any believer contemplate the cross and withhold self, substance, or service from Christ?

Equally earnest and heart-searching is the message of the cross to the unbeliever. He knows he is a sinner (Rom. 3:23), he knows that "the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23), and he knows that "neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Here at the cross he meets that one "who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed" (1. Pet. 2:24).

There were two malefactors who were crucified with Him (v. 32), and one railed at Him. The other said, "Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom"; and Jesus said to him, "Today thou shall be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:39-43). Unbeliever, will you not just now take the eternal life which Jesus died to make possible for you?

Loving His enemies to the last, our Lord prayed for the forgiveness of those who thus despitefully used Him. What matchless grace! One wonders how many of them by repentence for their deeds made it possible for that prayer to be answered. That door of redemption stands open today for every one who up to now has crucified the Son of God afresh (Heb. 6:6) by sin and unbelief.

Strength

MANY a weak and weary one has found comfort and strength in contemplation of the living invitation of the Master (Matthew 11:28), "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." This is a call to mankind to cast out fear, doubt, and sin, and to utilize the truth that makes one free.

It was his understanding of God as Spirit and of the spiritual nature of man that gave Christ dominion over sin, disease and death. His conscious unity with God made him the Exemplar for all time. Circumstances could form no obstacles to his righteousness. He walked on the water, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead. It was no material sense of authority that enabled him to cast out the devils of unbelief, hatred, and fear. The good he understood and embodied constituted his spiritual strength...

An important step if one would demonstrate strength is to realize that life, truth, and intelligence are not in matter. Man is the image and likeness of his Maker; he is spiritual, not material, and strength is a quality of Spirit, not a condition of matter.

Weakness, weariness, fatigue, and sin are harassing pictures, drawn by mortal mind, but these are not a necessary part of human experience. They persist in their claim to power, and would deceive and enslave humanity. Only the mighty power of Truth can end their tyranny. Spiritual understanding reveals man unfettered by enslaving beliefs—upright, pure, and free. The daily task is done with energy and freedom when we claim spiritual strength as our divine right. Fatigue is no more necessary in human experience than is sin; and both sin and fatigue are overcome by the humble acknowledgment and confident claiming of the real man's inherent purity, strength, and freedom.

No one need lack spiritual strength. The Bible is filled with examples, exhortations, and promises that furnish daily sustenance...

We need a better understanding of man. The weak, weary mortal whom we see bowed down with responsibility, fear, foreboding, and discouragement is not the real man...

Man is spiritual; and for that reason he cannot be tired or weak. The image of Love is never tired, never under strain, never overworked. Worry, fear, and a faint sense of responsibility do not belong to man. Man is not separate from God...

Like Jesus, we need to be determined to do God's will under every circumstance, in order that we may derive from God the ever-present quality of spiritual strength. We can be faithful in our consecrated effort to reflect God in every thought and deed. We should resolve calmly to use the energies of Truth in all our activities. When we strive to follow the example of our Master, we gain clearer views of Life, Truth, and Love.

The genuine strength of individuals, groups, or nations is in exact proportion to their exercise of spiritual power. Power is not in arms, in lands, or in money. Each individual makes a real contribution to world progress when he purifies his own thought and claims abundant spiritual strength for man. Only spiritual strength can overcome the aggressive elements of thought that are abroad in the world today. Greed, pride, fear, and tyranny are human weaknesses. Obedience to the law of God ensures genuine strength.

The Scriptures say (Isaiah 40:31), "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Speaking of this passage, Mary Baker Eddy writes (Science and Health, p. 213), "The meaning of that passage is not perverted by applying it literally to moments of fatigue, for the moral and physical are as one in their results."—The Christian Science Monitor.

Monochromatic Scheme

A monochromatic color scheme lends itself well to a dining room with dignified mahogany furniture. The walls and woodwork painted straw color, a golden tan carpet and chair coverings of old gold complete the scheme.

Two Common Spices

The nutmeg tree is the only plant whose seed produces two common spices, nutmeg and mace, the latter being the dried arilode or fibrous covering of the nutmeg kernel.

Equally earnest and heart-searching is the message of the cross to the unbeliever. He knows he is a sinner (Rom. 3:23), he knows that "the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23), and he knows that "neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Here at the cross he meets that one "who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed" (1. Pet. 2:24).

There were two malefactors who were crucified with Him (v. 32), and one railed at Him. The other said,

"Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom"; and Jesus said to him, "Today thou shall be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:39-43). Unbeliever, will you not just now take the eternal life which Jesus died to make possible for you?

Loving His enemies to the last, our Lord prayed for the forgiveness of those who thus despitefully used Him. What matchless grace!

One wonders how many of them by repentence for their deeds made it possible for that prayer to be answered. That door of redemption stands open today for every one who up to now has crucified the Son of God afresh (Heb. 6:6) by sin and unbelief.

Get After the Rats

Much has been written and said about rats in recent years and almost every farmer knows that they do present a real problem—and an expensive one.

Every farmer has been told that every rat costs him about $2.00 a year. The rat is one of our worst disease carriers and property destruction runs into thousands of dollars a year, but he still has the problem of how to successfully eradicate them.

Rat proofing buildings, using traps, etc., are effective but they require time and money and are naturally postponed and neglected.

Baiting with poison bait is really the most economical and effective, however, the average farmer does not make a study of rats and their habits and therefore does not meet with the success he should have in this sort of a campaign.

To wage a successful war against rats on the farm, this most important thing to remember is, that almost invariably you will underestimate the amount of rats you actually have as you do not see them all at one time. You cannot feed a hundred head of hogs with a bushel of corn and likewise cannot kill four hundred or five hundred rats with 10¢ worth of rat kill. The first time you place out bait it is highly important to place out enough because if only a few are killed the remaining ones become bait wary and will not take bait at a second baiting.

To date red squill bait is the most successful for use on the farm because of its relative harmlessness to livestock, poultry, etc. There are a number of good red squill rat kills on the market which will do the job and all that is necessary is to shake them out of the bag where the rats feed and run. However, it is well to bear in mind that an advertised brand which is reputable is more apt to contain a good grade of red squill compounded with ingredients which rats will take readily, and a sufficient number of baits to get a high percentage of kill. It is also a good idea to make a second baiting after a period of fifteen days in order to get the newly born, as the mother rat stores food for them before and after birth and as a rule they do not get the bait.

Place out enough of the bait so all the rats will have the opportunity to get some and you will undoubtedly meet with success.

During March 22 to 29, Lake County Farm Bureau is putting on a rat killing week. The bait will be distributed through the Lake-Cook Farm Supply stores at cost—10 baits for 75 cents. This bait is dried and is easier to handle than the bait used under refrigeration and is believed to be more effective in killing.

Cherry Pie

Cherry Pie Filling

2 cups cherries
3/4 cup cornstarch
2/3 cup cherry juice
7/8 cup sugar
1 tablespoon butter

Mix cornstarch with portion of 2/3 cup juice to make a thin paste, heating balance of juice until it comes to a boil. Add cornstarch mixture. Stir well until mixture is transparent. Then add sugar and butter. Remove from fire. Add cherries, stirring as little as possible. Let stand while making crust.

Crust

Mix flour and salt, add shortening. Cut with pastry blender until fat has mixed and then separated into small pieces. Add water and blend until it forms a ball (size of tip of finger). Roll bottom crust to fit pan, then roll top crust. Brush top crust with top milk to brown. Bake in oven 15 minutes at 350°. Turn oven down to 350° and bake until golden brown.

1 1/2 cups flour

3/4 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup shortening

5 tablespoons water

To Keep Your Kitchen Sink Clean

Want to keep the enamel on your kitchen sink white and gleaming? Then take care of it. Don't wait until stains ruin the finish. Try to prevent the stains. A few precautions along the line will do more good than all the scouring you have time to do. Briefly, don't allow refuse to gather in your sink strainer, because this permits juices

Signs in Geometric Designs
One version explaining the signs painted in geometric designs on the barns in eastern Pennsylvania is to the effect that the idea was derived from the ancient Egyptians and that the signs are supposed to produce fertility of the soil and make the live stock prolific. A Mennonite historian says that the designs were used by the early settlers as an expression of their religious freedom. They took literally Christ's statement, "I am the Morning Star and the Rose of Sharon," and the symbols nearly all are derived from the star, or tulip design, the latter being a simplified version of the Rose of Sharon.

Snow Surveying

An army of more than 2,000 men moves every winter over the high mountain peaks of the West, measuring sample snow depths to determine in advance how much water will flow down Western streams through the following season. The department of agriculture recently issued a publication which tells the story of snow surveys and how much they mean to Western irrigation.

Rolls

6 cups sifted flour
1 beaten egg
1 cup luke-warm water
1 cup scalded milk
1 cake compressed yeast
6 tablespoons shortening
4 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoons salt

Pour yeast into luke-warm water, add 1 teaspoon sugar and let stand 5 minutes. Scald milk, add salt and remaining sugar and shortening, let cool. Measure 2 cups flour into mixing bowl, add the softened yeast, an beat until smooth. When the milk mixture is luke-warm add it to the yeast batter and beat again. Add the beaten egg and enough flour to make a smooth dough. Knead about 5 minutes, place in clean, greased bowl, cover and let rise in warm place until double in size. Fold or punch the dough down and let rise again 3/4 as much as the first time. Then turn dough onto floured board and pat with hands to press out most of gas. Cut or pinch off pieces of even size, about 1 inch in diameter. Dip each in melted butter and place three balls together in greased muffin cups. Let rise in warm place until fully doubled in size. Bake about 20 minutes in hot oven until lightly browned.

Pastel of Eggs

Another way to serve eggs for breakfast or Sunday evening supper is to do it the pastel way. After corraling six eggs, six tablespoons butter, 1/4 pound grated cheese, some buttered toast, 3/4 teaspoon salt, prepare them as follows: Beat the eggs, then add salt and cheese. Melt the butter in a pan and in it cook the egg-cheese mixture, stirring until it is thickened like custard, being sure to cook at moderate temperature. Serve hot on buttered toast.

Dog Names

Did you ever wonder why certain breeds of dogs had their particular names? The chow chow was named from the Chinese word for food, "chow." He was once an article of food, eaten with much relish. The word terrier, descriptive of many separate breeds, comes from the French "terre" meaning earth. All terriers are diggers by nature, having been originally bred to hunt vermin. The stately Newfoundland is named from the province of his origin, as are many other breeds.

Grist Mills

North Carolina probably has more water-powered grist mills in operation than any other state. Mills are especially numerous in the Blue Ridge mountains and the Smokies. One reason may be that old-fashioned southern corn bread, according to experts, can be rightfully made only with "water-ground meal."

Enjoyable Climate

Nassau, Bahamas, can boast of a far more enjoyable climate than most cities in the United States. In winter the nearby Gulf Stream makes a balmy winter playground for the thousands of winter vacationists who visit here and in the summer the island is "air conditioned" by the trade winds. Average temperature the year-round is 77 degrees.

Weighing the Earth

A number of years ago, Dr. Heyl of the National Bureau of Standards set up a miniature system of earths and moons in his underground laboratory. His work was to measure the attraction of these bodies for one another. By determining how and to what extent the force of gravitation acts between the miniature planets in the laboratory, Dr. Heyl arrived at the gravitational constant. When this was determined it was merely a problem in mathematics to apply this constant to the earth and compute its mass.

Seven Billion Dollars to Aid Britain Is First Step Under Lease-Lend Act; England Admits: 'Spring Blitz Is Here' Following Terrific Raids on London

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

VICHY, FRANCE.—Frenchmen of a few years ago would never have dreamed that this scene might take place in their homeland. But here it is. Gen. Neubronn von Eisenburg, who, as Nazi Inspector, keeps a sharp eye on what's left of the French army, salutes as he reviews a French honor guard on his arrival at Vichy.

BRITISH: Aid Into Law

Under the eyes of watchful photographers, President Roosevelt wielded six pens, made the British aid bill, called by its opponents the lend-spend-give bill, and then turned in his chair and told newsmen he would ask for $7,000,000,000 as the initial appropriation under the measure.

While this announcement struck with bomb-shell force as the greatest American peace-time appropriation request in history, the congress apparently was willing to go ahead and match the President's desire for speed with some action of its own.

This was evident when the bill returned from senate to house with an even dozen amendments attached. Representative Martin of Massachusetts, minority leader, jumped to his feet, pleaded for unity and for action, and received a most unusual tribute from his colleagues.

He received what is known as a standing ovation from the entire house. The lower branch of the congress responded to this brief talk by voting 317 to 71 to accept the changes put in by the upper house. Then Vice President Wallace and Speaker Sam Rayburn put their penned signatures to the printed measure and off it went to the President.

Hardly had it become law and within an hour after the President had asked for the seven billions, statisticians were busy trying to tell the public what this amount meant in purchased goods and services.

One of these put it this way—it would equal a strip of $10 bills reaching 2½ times around the world; it would buy 120 Empire State buildings at 50 million each; or it would build 115 Triborough bridges at $60,000,000; or 120 dreadnaughts at $50,000,000; or 2,350 submarines, 2,090,000 light tanks; 28,000 four-motor bombers; also would pay the entire cost of public education in the U. S. for three years, or provide a $50 U. S. bond for every man, woman and child.

Thus given a visual picture of what the sum meant, it was figured that the first job would be for the President to provide for England as much as possible under the law of the existing military and naval equipment, up to the $1,300,000,000 limit set in the bill.

It was pointed out that this amount would come out of the seven billion total, for as soon as $500,000,000, say, of aid had been sent from existing equipment, the army or navy would be reimbursed that amount, and would then be able to purchase replacements.

The rest of the $7,000,000,000 will go into purchase contracts for eventual aid to Britain, Greece or other nations which are opposing Nazi aggression. These contractual obligations must be on the dotted line by 1943, but can be carried out through 1946.

LONDON: Hit Hard

Terrific series of air attacks on England, especially on London, plus tremendous losses at sea brought forth the frank statement in commons that the spring blitz promised by Hitler was now fully under way. Government leaders expressed confidence in the outcome, balancing against ship losses unannounced and untotaled damage inflicted on

HIGHLIGHTS... in the news

PHILADELPHIA—Alarm clock sales are booming. Observers in the industry blame it on the draft. Most soldiers are taking alarm-clocks to camp—trying to beat the bugles to the "reveille" call.

LOS ANGELES—Fred R. Cody wanted a divorce. His complaints were that his wife put black widow spiders in his bed and tried to run over him with the family car.

PHILADELPHIA—Leopold Skowronski, for 29 years leader of the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra, has resigned. The reason? He said he wanted to be free to serve his government and his country.

LONDON—Erland Echlin, Canadian citizen and former representative of two American magazines, Newsweek and Time, has been jailed under a defense regulation.

Mrs. B. C. Rathbone, 30, becomes the second American-born woman member of the British house of commons by virtue of an unopposed nomination in her district. She takes the seat of her late husband, Flight Lieut. John Rathbone, killed last December in a flying mission over Germany. Born in Boston, Mass., U. S. A., she has two children now in America.

TURKEY: Scene of Bombing

Dramatic was the entrance of former Bulgarian ambassador from England, George W. Rendel, into Turkey after his flight from Sofia.

Rendel and his staff walked into the lobby of the Pera Palace hotel. There was a flash, a roar, and the cries of wounded and dying. The smoke cleared away to find Rendel still unharmed, several members of his staff wounded, and two men killed, one of them a Turkish secret service man assigned to guard the ambassador. Twenty-three, in all, were wounded by the blast, which badly wrecked the room in which the crowd was gathered.

But, as in the Munich bombing which Hitler escaped, the chief target of the Turkish bomb, Mr. Rendel, was unscratched. His aides said there was no doubt, that it was a deliberate attempt at assassination, and its occurrence at the very time when Turkey was debating its position in the expected forthcoming invasion of Greece by the Nazis, served further to entrench Istanbul on the front pages of the press.

Rendel's attractive daughter, 20, who was standing near the blast in the hotel lobby, told the story in a few words when she said: "As far as I could tell, the floor just flew up." She is a calm soul, having driven her father through the streets of Sofia during the German occupation in an automobile flying the British flag.

It was later revealed that an attempt was made to blow up the train on which Rendel and his party were traveling to Istanbul. This was proven when it was found that the handbag which contained the explosive had traveled on the train with the Rendel party, but failed to go off.

The Nazis denied that the bombs had been planted on the train, saying the Rendel baggage had been loaded under the eyes of scores of Gestapo agents. However, British agents, Hans Dietrich, Twin Lakes, called sources later replied that another unexploded bomb had been found in baggage unloaded from the train.

JAPAN: Peace Move

Whether it was under the frowning menace of Axis guns, both in the West and in the Far East, or whether it was sincere, but noteworthy, at any rate, was the statement issued by the Indo-Chinese (French) government following the ratification of the peace treaty with Thailand (Siam).

In this peace treaty Japan was the peacemaker and mediator. Back of her mediation efforts, however, was a huge fleet which was moved into waters off French Indo-China during the height of the Thailand-Indo Chinese war.

Reports from Saigon, when the peace was finally terminated, giving Thailand huge slices of Indo-Chinese territory along the borders, were that the peace was more satisfactory than the French government had hoped for.

It was stated that in Saigon it was expected that even larger cessions of territory would have had to have been made if Japan had not intervened.

Immediately Foreign Minister Matsukata announced that he would shatter Japanese precedents by taking a trip to Europe to confer with his Axis partners.

von Wiegand, writing from Shanghai, saw in this project a chance that Japan would seek Axis, particularly Nazi mediation in an effort to end the Japanese-Chinese war.

Mudhens Getting Better—

So are Bernie's Keglers

If the present trend keeps up Bernie's Bowlers are not going to have much to crow about after they meet the Grass Lake Mudhens in the third of their series of match games being played off at Antioch Recreation. And that prediction is made by no less an authority than the "Hens" themselves who cite figures tabulated in the last two games as proof of their contention that they are on the way to victory.

March 6 the "Hens" lost to Bernie's by a margin of 260, but in the last game, played Friday, the Grass Lake team cut the lead to 101, while rolling a score totalling 31 pins more than the visitors scored in the first game—but the "Hens" still lost for Bernie's men had improved, spelling 132 more pins than in the first game.

Elmer Petersen started off with 235 which proved to be the peak individual score. Several players reached the 200 mark, as will be noted from the score. Barney Shumnesson of the Mud Hens came through with a total of 27, high score for the match.

To Pay $962.10 for Dogs' Destruction of Livestock

Claims for damages for livestock and poultry killed and injured in Lake county by dogs during the past year, to the amount of $962.10, will be paid to the farmers by County Treasurer Garfield R. Leaf.

Claims for such damages must be approved by township supervisors, and the Illinois state law provides that the reimbursement to the farmers be made only for farm animals that are destroyed.

Dogs left behind by summer visitors, joined from time to time by farm animals, are said to have caused much of the live-stock and poultry destruction.
